33rd ANNUAL MIAMI NATIONAL ANTIQUES SHOW
RETURNS TO MIAMI MART CENTER
IN JANUARY 2010

More than 250 outstanding dealers and thousands of international collectors will converge at shows in Miami this winter to buy and sell hundreds of millions of dollars worth of antiques. One of the most venerable and well-regarded of the major winter Florida shows – the 33rd Annual Miami National Antiques Show & Sale – will be held at the Doubletree Miami Mart Center (formerly Sheraton Center) adjacent to the Miami Merchandise Mart on January 15-17, 2010.

Select dealers from across the U.S., Canada, Europe, and South America will feature a wide range of high quality antiques and fine arts including period furniture, crystal, sterling, bronzes, art glass, Asian, Art Nouveau, Art Deco, porcelain, paintings, mirrors, engravings, antique & estate jewelry, pottery, weaponry, art posters, Tiffany lamps, textiles, folk art, Judaica, lamps, rugs, art restoration, crystal repair, art reference books, and much more.

The Miami National Antiques Show is distinguished by its unique blend and exceptional quality of merchandise, ranging in price from $10 to over $100,000. Because it ranks as one the most reputable international antique shows, the “airport show” – as it is commonly called due to its location near MIA – attracts serious collectors, interior designers, and antiques enthusiasts from around the world.

Show hours are: Friday, Noon to 9 p.m.; Saturday, Noon to 8 p.m.; and Sunday, Noon to 5 p.m. Weekend admission is $15; good for return all 3 days of the show. Children under 12 are admitted free. The Doubletree Miami Mart Center is located at 777 NW 72nd Avenue, Miami 33126. (Directions: I-95 to 836 Expressway West, exit NW 72nd Avenue, then left at light, follow signs to Mart entrance.)
